

The Digital Dissertations Library of the Russian State Library

Russian State Library is a unique repository of originals of the dissertations on all subjects and specializations having been defended in Russia beginning from 1944. The number of the dissertations nowadays exceeds 900 000 volumes and increases by 30000 annually.

Electronic project of the RSL “Digital Dissertations Library” (www.diss.rsl.ru/?lang=en) at the moment contains more than 750000 full text dissertations and abstracts in various fields, including Philology, Philosophy, Economics, Law, Architecture, Art, Physics and Mathematics, Chemical, Biological, Technical Sciences, Medicine, Pharmacy and others.

To access "Digital Dissertations Library" Virtual Reading Rooms of the RSL are created (organizations, where the access to the collection of dissertations is opened). Users of the library virtually visit "Digital Dissertations Library" and read full texts of dissertations and abstracts.

Access for 10 simultaneous users is IP authorized. Users and members of the organization can work with the collection of dissertations through personal login and passwords which are provided by the administrator.

The catalogue of the Digital Dissertations Library of RSL and more than 2500 dissertations are available in open access for every user at <http://diss.rsl.ru/?menu=disscatalog>.
